Summary of Legislation: This bill requires the Office of the Secretary of Family and Social Services to establish an emergency response program to assist individuals with both developmental disabilities and mental illness in crisis situations. The bill allows the Office to contract with a public or private agency to establish the program. It also appropriates $1,000,000 to the Office from July 1, 2001, to June 30, 2003, to implement the program. (The introduced version of this bill was prepared by the Indiana Commission on Mental Retardation and Developmental Disabilities.)

Effective Date: July 1, 2001.

Explanation of State Expenditures: This bill would require the Family and Social Services Administration (FSSA) to establish a program to provide statewide emergency response services for persons who have dual diagnoses of mental illness and mental retardation in crisis situations. The bill does not define what circumstances constitute a crisis. The Office may provide psychiatric treatment including institutional care, developmental services, and residential services. The bill appropriates $1 M in State General Funds for the biennium. The appropriation does not revert to the General Fund at the end of the biennium.
